S.R.SATHE JJ

DATE: NOVEMBER 15, 2006.

P.C.

1. Advocates for the parties are present.

Husband and wife are also present.

2. Parties have arrived at an interim settlement in respect of making an arrangement for custody and maintenance of ward - Anant. We have ascertained from both side counsel and from the parties also that the consent terms have been arrived at voluntarily. The parties have accepted the consent terms in our presence in the open Court. They have understood the consent terms. Therefore, consent terms are taken on record and marked "X" for identification. We accept the consent terms.

3. In view of this, writ petition stands disposed of.

4. So far as criminal application is concerned, F.I.R. in C.R.No. 277 of 2006 filed with Juhu Police Station, is hereby quashed.

5. We further make it clear that the consent terms which are arrived at in respect of the custody of the ward - Anant is a temporary arrangement till the appropriate applications are disposed by the Family Court and Family Court shall dispose of the said matters on merits of the case without being in any manner influcned by the consent terms. We hereby accept the undertakings given by the parties in the consent terms.

6. Family Court is directed to dispose of the main applications pending under the Guardians and Wards Act, and so also the other co-related matters pending between the parties, as early as possible, preferably within a period of six months from today.

7. Parties shall co-operate with the Family Court for the early disposal of the matters.

8. Writ Petition and Criminal Application accordingly stand disposed of in the above terms.
